Lazers End Season with a Championship!

Tommy Smyth
ESPN Soccer Analyst

The Lazers amazing championship run began Sunday morning against another 2-0 team—the GBSC Divas. The Lazers who were taking no prisoners on Saturday were certainly not going to be intimidated with a chance to make their first championship game. The game started out with the Lazers immediately on the offensive, pressuring the Divas, which continued until the final whistle. Although tied 1-1 at half time the Lazers would not be denied and finished strong, winning 4-1 and clinching their first tournament bracket and a spot in the finals. This team had come together like never before and were about to take what had eluded them in 3 previous tournaments—a championship. Their regular season rival, the Hereford Falcons, awaited them in the finals for all the glory. The Falcons would rush the Lazers sideline during warm ups and sent the entire team out as captains—it would do nothing to intimidate the Lazers. It was as if they knew, you could see it in their eyes—destiny had finally dialed their number. The championship game started fast and each team took their best shot. The first half ended with a 0-0 tie but Coach Jamie took the Lazers aside and told them to be patient, he believed the Falcons would soon make a mistake and to keep up the pressure. The Lazers would soon capitalize on a costly mistake in the middle of the field and Lauren C finished a beautiful shot into the far corner of the net. The entire Lazer bench including the 8th Man went crazy...now could the Lazers hold off the Falcons for the remaining 12 minutes. Olivia made several great saves and the defense dominated play. With the clock ticking down you could feel that this would finally be it and the Lazers would now be CHAMPIONS! The team rushed the field with the greatest feeling of accomplishment—rightly so, they deserved every minute of it.

LAZERS ROCK!!!!

Lazer M.V.P. Award

Exceptional play over the last two tournaments has made this a very close race for team MVP. Everyone has been considered and the award will be revealed during the "Season to Remember" story book at TheaterXtreme. I want each of you to know that Coach Jackie and I are very proud of all our Lazers. You have grown individually and as a team and can now add Champion to your list of accomplishments. GO LAZERS!!!
